

Place your name on the back of this sheet of paper and nowhere else. Staple your answers on the front of this sheet of paper. Failure to follow these directions will cost you 10 points. If you use double-sided printing or print on the back of scrap paper, I will give you one additional point.

1) (10 points) Which part of my web page, <http://www.WCsaplarJr.info> do you think will be most helpful? Why? Is anything missing that you would like to see? If you were an International Economics major, what comps would you be taking on the Tuesday morning of comps?

2) (10 points each) For each of the following explain why it is an important part of the checklist when writing an economics paper.

A) Is there economic content? What terms or concepts are applicable?

B) Find testable hypothesis.

C) What evidence can be used to test the hypothesis?

3) (10 points each) For each of the following, explain what goes in that section and tell me if it is a long or short section.

A) Abstract

B) History and Background (Sometimes called a literature survey.)

C) Analysis

D) Limitations

E) Summary or conclusions, and recommendations

F) Appendices
